DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 13 recites the limitation "the dispensing arm" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 12 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hong.

Hong teaches a method for cleaning a polishing pad comprising imparting a relative motion to the polishing pad, wherein the polishing pad is rotated about a center axis which is perpendicular to the polishing surface of the polishing pad and dispensing a wash material directly to the most center portion of the polishing surface about and including the axis, and all along an area from the circumference to the axis, (col. 1, lines 39-50).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hong in view of Tolles.

Hong teaches all the limitations of the claims except for dispensing de-ionized water to the most center portion of the polishing surface. Tolles teaches that a wash solution can be de-ionized water, (col. 8, lines 31-32). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the wash solution of Hong to be de-ionized water, as taught by Tolles, since Hong teaches supplying a cleaning solution to the pad after the polishing of the wafer, (col. 1, lines 29-39), and Tolles teaches de-ionized water as a cleaning solution.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 13 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 1-11 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

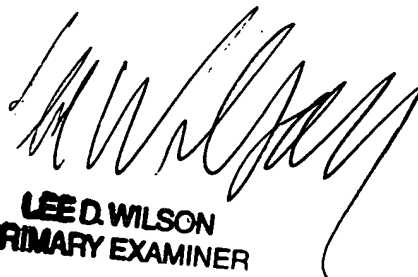

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 12,14 and 15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
